Non-Biblical Answers to: “Who are you to tell me how to live?”

1. Subjectivism (moral relativism): “Ethical judgments merely express an individual’s emotions or attitudes toward an action or object of evaluation.”

Arguments for:

Circumstances & generational experience differ from person to person

Intolerant to impose one’s values on others

Non-Biblical Answers to: “Who are you to tell me how to live?”

Problems with:

Says nothing about actions or objects themselves, only autobiographical expressions lacking basis for moral outrage over evil actions or belief in objective value.

Self-refuting* since every person inevitably experiences others' judgments of him or his labor to which he objects as “unfair.”

Resulting anarchy leads to totalitarian imposition of the judgments of the stronger against the weaker to avoid social chaos.

Who has the REAL “Evil problem”?

Christian: Good / Evil mix is “abnormal” and temporary

Pagan: Good / Evil mix is permanently “normal”

The Trinity (3)

Trinity	Nature, Person, and Personality
(1)	There are no more nor less than 3: back of the person a nature, merging into the lives of others a personality. One is not a personal being unless all three elements are present. ... each one of the three factors in man is so distinct that no one of the three can be either one of the others.
(2)	Each of the three factors is inevitable to the others. Without the person there is no nature or personality. Without the nature there is no person, no personality. And there is no person, no nature, without personality as a consequence. ... They are so much one that each is the whole man.
(3)	The three factors in personal human life ... are manifestly three things which man is ... not three things that he does. ... They are three modes of being.
(4)	Nature is first , the source of all that you are. Person is second , embodying the nature. Personality is third , proceeding from the nature through the person.
(5)	The person is begotten continually from the nature. ... The person sends out his personality. He sends out his personality ... from his inner nature.
(6)	The unseen nature reveals itself in the person. He who has really seen and known the person has seen the nature. The person is the visible embodiment of the whole being. The personality reveals the person and his nature.
(7)	There is the point of view of my essential, true nature. There is the simple, personal point of view—of me, the person . There is the point of view of me as related to others .
